Enjoy the beauty of Koblenz and the Middle Rhine

Koblenz at the confluence of Rhine and Moselle is one of the oldest towns in Germany, founded by the Romans (8 B.C., so in 2012 Koblenz will be 2020 years old), today a city of 107,000 inhabitants with a large number of IT firms and other institutions of the service and administration sector. Koblenz hosted the 2011 Federal Horticultural Exhibition which beautified both the area around Deutsches Eck and the Ehrenbreitstein Fortress. Koblenz is the northern end of the Middle Rhine gorge, a UNESCO World Heritage full of medieval castles and picturesque landscapes.
