Call for international PhD-students: Short-term Completion Scholarship

As part of the "Scholarship and Support Program" (STIBET) of the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD), the Interdisciplinary PhD Center (IPZ) announces a Short-term Completion Scholarship funded by the Foreign Office.

Target group: qualified foreign PhD-students, registered for a doctorate at the University of Koblenz-Landau whose thesis has progressed sufficiently to be submitted within the next 6 months.

The eligibility period extends over 3 months during the calendar year 2015. The date of commencement for the funding is flexible, but it cannot start later than July 1st, 2015. The grant is € 900 per month.

Application deadline is 13th February, 2015. The funding decision will be made by a committee.

Main criteria for approval:
- a) good academic record,
- b) financial need and
- c) completion of the PhD-project within the next 6 months.

To apply, submit the following documents:
- Cover letter with reasons for the application (max. 1 page)
- Report on the status of the PhD project by the supervisor
- Request form "Short-term Completion Scholarship for international PhD-students"
- CV (point form)
- Copy of the “acceptance/admission as a doctoral candidate” by the department
