The Landau Campus of the University of Koblenz-Landau and Technische Universität Kaiserslautern are in the process of forming the University of Kaiserslautern-Landau (RPTU). We are looking for you to help us shape our new university at the Landau location.

The Institute for Education of Children and Adolescents – pedagogy in early childhood – within faculty 5: educational sciences at the Landau Campus invites applications for:

A full professorship (W 2) in Early Childhood Educational Research (m/f/d)

The field of pedagogy in early childhood in Landau is strong in research and innovation. We are looking for candidates with outstanding professional expertise who will play an active role in strengthening the academic profile of the institute and the faculty within the development of the University of Kaiserslautern-Landau (RPTU).

Key responsibilities:
The position holder provides an empirical contribution to research on early childhood education. Collaboration in one of the faculty’s research profile topics („Normativity in science and living environment“, „Education and training under conditions of heterogeneity“, „Educational processes in the context of organizations“) as well as within the institute for education of children and adolescents is expected. Experience with the acquisition of third-party funds and participation in academic self-administration is required, leadership experience is highly desirable. The teaching load is 9 hours per week per semester (SWS) and is offered in the field of pedagogy in early childhood (B.A. and M.A. degree programs). Courses are offered in German.

Requirements for appointment:
The hiring requirements of the Higher Education Act (HochSchG) in Rhineland-Palatinate apply. Prerequisite conditions are a successfully completed university degree, a qualified doctorate in educational sciences, psychology, sociology or a comparable discipline, pedagogical aptitude as well as additional scientific achievements (§ 49 Abs. 2 HochSchG).

The state of Rhineland-Palatinate and the University of Koblenz-Landau are committed to a policy of intense personal mentoring for students, and thus expect a strong presence of teachers at the university.

The university is committed to equal employment opportunities and strongly encourages women to apply for the position. Given equal qualification and aptitude for the position, female applicants are hired preferentially as long and insofar as underrepresentation persists and unless serious reasons outweigh equal opportunity considerations. Applicants with disabilities will be considered preferentially as long as they are equally qualified (please enclose documentary evidence).

Applicants are asked to send their documents (letter of motivation with specification of research interests, curriculum vitae including a description of scientific and academic career, certificates, list of publications, filled in application form, etc.) only by email to bewerbung@uni-koblenz-landau.de no later than 30.09.2022 quoting the reference number 46/2022. Applicants are asked to submit a filled-in application form with their application (https://www.uni-koblenz-landau.de/de/landau/fb5/organisation/formular-professur/view) and to attach all documents in a single PDF-file.

The dean, Prof. Dr. Anja Wildemann, will gladly answer questions and further inquiries by telephone +49 6341 28032250 or by email fb5@uni-landau.de.
